RARE BULBS FROM THE FAR EAST

AMORPHOPHALLUS

Importing bulbs and plants from India, Japan, and other remote corners of the globe, is often a disheartening experience. Precious bulbs often arrive after many months of travel completely rotten, or dehydrated. Imagine our surprise, therefore, to receive recently a shipment of the finest, largest, cleanest bulbs we have ever received — and at surprisingly low prices which we pass on to our customers.

AMORPHOPHALLUS BULBIFER

Sometimes erroneously called Thompsonia Nepalense, this huge Aroid produces a spathe shorter than A. Rivieri, and less offensive, rose in color, and quite broad.

MAMMOTH SIZE:	$1.00 each - 6 for $5.00
MEDIUM SIZE:	$2.00 each - 3 for $5.00

EUCHARIS AMAZONICA

Eucharis, or Amazon Lily. The beautiful pure white, translucent flowers are excellent for corsages, and command premium prices from florists. Also a fine pot plant subject.

2 for $1.00 - $5.00 per dozen

HAEMANTHUS MULTIFLORUS

More commonly known as the "Blood Lily", or the "Football Lily," the one name suggested by the bright red color (as opposed to the orange color of H. Katherinae), and the other suggested by its huge head, made up of hundreds of florets that open over a long period. Truly the "Aristocrat of the Amaryllis Family". Quite rare and formerly quite expensive, it is an "eye-stopper" whenever shown. Now available at "down-to-earth" prices.

HUGE BULBS: $3.00 ea. - 2 for $5.00	MEDIUM BULBS: $1.50 ea. - 4 for $5.00
---------------------------------------	---

MINIATURE TERRESTRIAL ORCHID

BLETILLA HYACINTHIANA. Most rugged and durable of them all. The dainty lavender flowers are miniature replicas of the florists' favorite — Cattleya.

6 for $1.00 - 25 for $3.00

MINIATURE AMARYLLIS (Zephyranthes)

Called by some the "Zephyr Lily", by others the "Rain Lily", as the flowers are said to bloom after each shower. These charming small flowers are ideal for the border. Can also be forced in pots. Can be planted abundantly at these low prices. Colors: Pink, White, Yellow, or Mixed.

25 for $1.00 - 100 for $2.75

HAEMANTHUS
